Happy New Year!

Here is the Tarot guidance to step into the new year.

The Chariot

This is the card of success and material security.

The Chariot is in tune with destiny.

This means that you are going to succeed in everything that you dedicate your personal effort and determination. This is a victory that you have earned to keep. Now, you have time before your next challenge begins, and you have some control of the situation, direction, and a plan; use your skills and abilities to move ahead.

Knight of Swords

An incoming unexpected situation.

Refrain to be impulsive.

Take the time to deal with the situation so it does not come back into your life.

The Empress

Happiness, fulfillment, abundance, and creativity.

She represents home and the principle of merging.

You will be enjoying your home and the company of people that you consider your family. Also partnerships with people with similar goals, views and affinities will bring prosperity.

Now that you have resolved your pending issues and took charge of the major changes in your life, peace and predictability can be attained.

The result of your efforts are larger than anticipated.

Have Faith

"Your prayers are manifesting. Remain positive, and follow your guidance!"

You've been asking and praying for some big dreams to come true and it's working! Just like a gardener who has planted new seeds, you must have faith that your crops will push above the surface. Keep watering your dreams by taking the steps that make them flourish.
