October 2022 Tarot Spread

A month to get ready to make your leap.

Time-out - If you are working or playing in excess, you must know when to rest. It is advised to take voluntary rest before the body demands it. Take a moment to retreat from trouble, and after a period of rest, you will be ready to return to the outside world.

Material success - You are content with what you have accomplished so far, as well as your financial situation. Now you know where your best interest lies. The wise use of your resources will bring you success and rewards.

Wishful thinking - The imagination has been working overtime and making decisions is getting difficult. You were searching for attainment, knowledge, riches, etc., but your imagination has become stronger than reality. You need to make certain choices, and to put care into the decisions.

XXII - The Fool - A new phase of your life.

You will feel a sense of freedom, opening up to new experiences, and acting on impulse, but look before you make your leap.

Tip: Be careful not to be tempted by what appears better than it really is, but take chances, and trust your instincts. This is a spiritual quest in which the material world is of little importance.

Inspiration card: Break Free "Try different ventures and experiences as a way to grow and learn." This card asks you to swim outside of your comfort zone. When you make a commitment to explore and experiment, the world responds by giving you wonderful new experiences, but test the water before you venture out. This is a definitive time for you to reach out and enjoy new options. Try something new today! - Doreen Virtue

Business - A unifying influence. - There is a chance to meet a director of a business with a strong belief in himself and his achievements. People go to him with their problems because he is responsible, educated, fair minded, clever, and sympathetic. He may be a good counselor or mentor to you. You are contemplating new ideas and wonder how they will fit with your plans. Seeking the support from another to get things started, or a partner could be beneficial. Also, a short trip near water is coming into the picture. The use of your creativity and skills will help you as well as with being appreciated. What you want is within your grasp.

Guidance card: XIII Death - Total change

Leaving the old behind is necessary to make a way for new ideas in order to progress. This is the end of a way of living and the promise of rebirth.

Tip: Be willing to change. Something must be allowed to die, an attitude, a security system, a perspective. Fear needs to be embraced to make progress possible. Eliminate the restrictive habits and blocks, the put down, even if you find it difficult to do so.

Take the risk to have nothing except faith. Live today!

Inspiration card: Blessed Change - "A major life change brings you great blessings."

This card assures you that the changes in your life are actually helping you to leave behind what no longer serves you. Change ushers in fresh opportunities to learn, grow, and prosper. Enjoy the changes even if they're intimidating. If life pushes you toward new responsibilities, know that you're qualified in Heaven's eyes. - Doreen Virtue
