March 2020 Tarot Spread
 You success relies on being focused on what you desire to accomplish, and being optimistic about the outcome.

The key to success during this month is Meditation.

I have included several meditation tips from my favorite inspirational decks along with my own insight.

Morning Affirmations - Magical Mermaids and Dolphins by D. Virtue

Say positive affirmations each morning to open the gates of manifestation.

Begin each day with positive intentions and affirmations and just allow yourself to believe that they are already manifested.

Now you are grounded. You have a better idea of how to pursue financial stability, and with all the information and experience that you have, your efforts to resolve your current situation will be giving you positive results.

A reliable person with influence and business connections could help you in getting a loan.

Many situations are coming back for resolution, but your priority now is to focus first on necessary changes and readjustment. You will be dealing with the rest at a better time.

The environment surrounding you is unstable and people are struggling. Connecting with others to help each other in a difficult time maybe beneficial to all.

Meditation – by D. Virtue, Healing with the Angels

Meditation is very important for you right now.

Everyday, spend at least five minutes of your time with your eyes closed, and breathing deeply at least three or four times. Ask your angels for help, continue to breathe deeply, and allow yourself to relax. You will get the answers from your angels in many and different ways during the day, and especially be aware of coincidences.

By the end of March, if you continue working out with the experience, contacts, and information that you collected in last past few months, you will accomplish what you desire.

During this month luck is on your side.

You will be granted more than one wish.
Answers to take the appropriate action will be coming to you.

Be optimistic and keep your faith.

Meditation DVD The Four Elements DVD de Meditación Los Cuatro Elementos

Meditation is the practice to release the outer world and to connect with the truth and the power within your self. Once your inner power or will is restored, the whole life alingns and synchronizes with you to accomplish your dreams.

During this year I will be searching for places to teach groups meditation. I will keep you posted. I currently do personal meditation-healing training for specific issues.

Wishing you a month to discover a way of love yourself completely and to be open for miracles bringing you ways to fulfill your dreams. Believe! - VC
