This month expect more contentment and security, a sense of freedom and simplicity. You will feel more vitality, good vibrations, and clarity. It's a time of personal creativity and growth, bringing something new to learn that is deeply significant in your life.

Restrictions will become manageable because they will loosen up, and you are accepting and understand the need for them. You will be ready to overcome them and seek new possibilities. Favorable changes are materializing based on the effort you put into moving on with your life, bringing a joyful atmosphere of celebration to share with your circle of people.

VI The Lovers – Choices – Relationship

Important choices to make. When making a decision, be sure to have enough information and remember there are always two sides to every situation. Check both before making up your mind. Some decisions will require cooperation between two or more people. Honesty and sharing resources will lead to a good outcome.

Harmonious relationships. You will have the chance to meet people with a special soul connection, ones that you feel at home with, and you share a marriage of the minds. You will be linked with people with good intentions and mutual understanding. Supporting each other will bring prosperity and joy into your life.
