May 2022 Tarot Spread

A month that offers a passage away from difficult situations.

Which is...

The most beautiful day? Today ~The faster road? The correct one - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

During this month you will be driven to reach for material comfort.

The separation of past and present will be the guide to help you consider your best choices. Look at the past. See what you learned from your mistakes to avoid them, and examine what can be brought forward to assist you in the future.

Which is...

The easiest thing? Making a mistake ~ The first necessity? Communicating - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Justice - She weighs motive, circumstance, and inner qualities.

Everyone will get what he/she deserves according to their deeds and actions.

Tip: A confusing situation or area needs to be put back in order.

Be aware of the consequences of your decisions. See both sides of the issue, deliberating on which action to take, weighing all factors, benefits and liabilities.

Pursue equilibrium in your life and manifestations.

Which is...

The best gift? Forgiveness ~ The most beautiful distraction? Work - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

The Hangman - This is the moment to plan life in a new way.

Tip: A new outlook can turn your life around. Keep what really matters and leave the rest behind. It is not the time to make a move. Wait for the appropriate moment, situation, or circumstance.

Which is...

The stronger power? Faith ~The best protection? The smile

The bigger obstacle? Fear ~ The most dangerous person? The liar - Mother Teresa of Calcutta

The Moon – Rely on your intuition – Deception - Self-deception

This is a card of caution and danger. You may be being taken advantage of or being misled. Be careful of information coming in because the truth may have been stretched intentionally. Also, check yourself for subconscious fears, something from the past that you have forgotten, but which affects your current life through actions inappropriate to your situation now.
 Tip: Emotion often creates chaos, feelings nurture the truth. Don't let emotion rule your feelings. To overcome emotional conflict, channel energies into creative outlets. Allow your intuitive powers to guide you.

Guidance: Things have gotten better, you are on firmer ground now.

There is a lot going on, but you will be able to manage. Be prepared for some struggles on the way. You have handled struggles such as this previously; you have the strength and the ability to defend your position. Hold on to what you believe. Income is coming from a second source, something reliable.

The Tower – Unexpected events – Disruption and rebuilding

You will be juggling between repeating the same patterns from the past or considering new ways. Allow false assumptions to be replaced with truth. Refrain from repeating the same mistakes and drama patterns from the past.

Never believe that life remains the same forever.
