August 2020 Tarot Spread

There are still big changes coming in. Be prepared to adapt to new circumstances.

This month's focus:

The Lovers - Important decisions and choices to make

Understanding the higher purpose of the situation will lead you to make an appropriate choice.

When making a decision, be sure to have enough information and remember there are always two sides to every situation. Check both before making up your mind.

Some decisions will require cooperation between two or more people. Honesty and sharing resources will lead to a good outcome.

The Hierophant - Observation of the rules when considering a final decision about an issue.

You will need to make up your mind about a situation that is already in motion.

The former ideas and principles are outdated. Be prepared to choose out of your comfort zone.

If the decision is related with a major corporation or legal issue, be sure to observe the rules and/or the law.

The Highlights:

A positive change is coming that you did not anticipate.

There will be clarity to lay a solid foundation over a current financial issue as well as financial aid.

Relationship issues will be easy to resolve. You will be infused with a wave of creativity.

It is the time to move on.

The current situation is that people are trying to deal with the uncertainties about themselves and the future. Your victory depends on your skills and abilities to move ahead.

You are on higher ground than you think.

Trust yourself; but control your own mind to prevent self-defeating thoughts.

The use of a vehicle or device may help you to accomplish your goal.

It is time to forgive, release something from your life, and rise up to seek new possibilities. A positive attitude will open doors.

News is coming about a legal resolution of a current situation that is affecting everyone.

After the issue is examined in-depth, a final decision will be made that will bring good results.

The creation of a structure in a chaotic situation is on the way.

A plan will be presented to promote financial balance for the community, implementing the use of remote networking and resources available to offer a secure work environment. This is a project that will make profit in the future.

Guidance - Unconscious thoughts create conscious reality.

Be still and allow your inner voice to lead you to the truth.

Respect your intuition.

Once you know the truth, share it discreetly.
